DETECTIVE JUSTIN TERRY

End of Watch: Tuesday, June 10, 2022

Detective Justin Terry joined LVMPD on August 21, 2001, after getting his degree in Criminal Justice. He loved spending time with his wife, family and friends and was an outdoor enthusiast.

During his time at LVMPD, Justin served in the Patrol Division as well as working in the Sex Offender Apprehension Program. He was widely regarded an expert in his field and was a sworn Task Force Officer with the U.S. Marshals Service. In his last year on the job, he continued his work protecting children in the Homicide Sex Crimes Bureau, Sexual Assault and Abuse Section. Throughout his career, Detective Terry honored fallen officers by participating in the annual Cops on Top Memorial hike. He is described as a man of integrity who dedicated his life to serving our community. On June 10, 2022, a tragic accident on U.S. 95 took the life of Detective Terry. He is survived by his wife, two sons, parents, sister, and twin brother.
