CORRECTIONS OFFICER JAMES W. HARBIN II

End of Watch: Sunday, March 18, 1979

Corrections Officer James Walter Harbin II joined the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department on February 17, 1979. On March 18, 1979, Officer Harbin was shot and killed in a convenience store where he stopped on his way to work. The store clerk had tried to warn him of a robbery in progress, but because he was in a uniform that was almost identical to a police officer, he was mistaken for one and shot. Officer Harbin was 22.

CORRECTIONS OFFICER ACADEMY

CLARK COUNTY
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

Las Vegas is unlike any community in the world, filled with limitless potential. Our city boasts an incredible relationship between LVMPD and the people who call the Las Vegas Valley their home. This relationship is vital as we strive to be the safest community in America.

Today is a day of great celebration, as it marks the completion of your academy training. As you embark on this great journey, remember all the work and dedication it took to get to this moment. With the oath of office recited, you have now taken your first steps into a larger calling that requires impeccable personal conduct, integrity, and bravery. These qualities will always be the foundation of your career. As a front-line officer, you are the backbone of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department and this community. We are proud of your accomplishments!

My expectation, as you join the noble ranks of LVMPD, is to focus on providing exceptional police service, which requires compassion for the people we serve. Our community trusts you to act with integrity, courage, accountability, respect, and excellence. Take the time to be patient enough to listen and respond with composure in the face of adversity. At times, the job will seem impossible, but I know you are up for the challenge, and you have my support.

From this day forward, you will be a leader and an agent of change for an organization that has established itself as one of the finest in the country. Always remember to appreciate your fellow officers, co-workers, and those we serve. Our community is counting on you.

Congratulations, and welcome to the Metro family!

Sincerely,
